10 Ways Your Local SBDC Can Help Your Business Recover from this Disaster And They Are All FREE!

Experienced SBDC business advisors will assist you to:

1. Complete SBA disaster loan applications
2. Locate available financial assistance
3. Request forms for loans, claims, and assistance
4. Re-create lost financial records to document losses
5. Locate and set up short-term and permanent replacement facilities
6. Assess environmental cleanup options
7. Develop an emergency response plan for your business
8. Design a plan for rebuilding your business and identifying customers
9. Identify and address other issues of concern to affected businesses
10. Create a business continuity plan to respond to future disasters

As with all of our Small Business Development Center consulting services, there is no charge for the confidential assistance provided by the SBDC in the aftermath of a disaster.

Research shows us the biggest damages from a disaster are not from the direct damage but occur in the years that follow the disaster. The good decisions about recovery you make now can save you from those losses. Whenever large scale disaster hits a community, things change. An experienced SBDC business advisor can provide the advice and support a small business owner needs to adjust to changes in the business community and the marketplace in the aftermath of a disaster. Let us help you!
